

26th ANNUAL ART SHOW AT THE DOG SHOW

MARCH 1, 2012 TO APRIL 9, 2012

A NATIONAL JURIED FINE ARTS COMPETITION DEDICATED TO CANINE ART

SPONSORED BY WICHITA KENNEL CLUB, HUTCHINSON KENNEL CLUB, SALINA KENNEL CLUB, WICHITA DOG TRAINING CLUB and PURINA® Chosen by Champions®

PURPOSE

The sponsors are pleased to offer artists who produce dog-related art the opportunity to exhibit their work in a show devoted exclusively to canine art. In addition, the competition will benefit The American Kennel Club Museum of The Dog as the Best of Show winner will be purchased by the Sponsors for $1,250.00 and donated to The American Kennel Club Museum of The Dog in St. Louis, Missouri.

JURORS

Jerry A. Berger, Springfield, MO

Jerry A. Berger, Director of the Springfield Art Museum since 1988, holds a Master of Arts degree in Art History and Bachelor of Arts degrees in Psychology and Art from the University of Wyoming. He served as Curator of Collections, Assistant Director and Acting Director of the University of Wyoming Art Museum, 1972-88. Berger directed all operations of the Springfield Art Museum and is supervisor of curatorial, technical and administrative staff. He makes final recommendations for Museum acquisitions, exhibitions and programs. He heads fundraising for capital projects and building development. The Museum has recently completed construction of a new wing that will provide additional galleries and a new library.

Berger serves as liaison between the Museum, Springfield City Government and area arts organizations. He is a member of the Missouri State University Public Art Committee and is on the Advisory Council of that University's Department of Art & Design. Berger is retiring mid-October 2011. He has judged numerous exhibits across the country and loves art almost as much as he does dogs.

He shares his home and museum office with his Wire-haired Fox Terrier Barko Polo of Briarbrook. Berger has a definite appreciation for art which depicts our canine friends. One of his favorite exhibitions that he mounted at the Springfield Art Museum was one composed of works from the American Kennel Club Museum of the Dog.

He has an abiding interest in promoting fine art and fine dogs.

Susan Grinels, Lander, WY

Born and raised in Charlotte, NC and as an adult I have worked in all three corners of Virginia - the tidewater, the mountains and northern Virginia, in my previous career as a certified veterinarian tech. Being a vet tech developed my appreciation for the relationships between humans and animals, and this is why I enjoy using our canine companions as subject matter in my artwork. I graduated in 1991 with a degree in graphic design, from the Corcoran School of Art in Washington, DC. I now have a sign shop/studio, teach art & design classes and do artwork. I live in Lander, Wyoming with my husband, three rescued dogs, one rescued cat and two old horses.

ELIGIBILITY

All artwork must include one or more dogs in the subject matter. The competition is open to all artists 18 years of age or older. Works must be original and must have been executed solely by the person in whose name they have been submitted. All entered artwork must be priced and for sale.

SALES

All work submitted must be priced and for sale. Every possible effort will be made to encourage sales. A 30% commission will be taken on all sales. No commission will be charged on purchased Best of Show award.

PUBLICITY

Signature on the entry form grants the Sponsors the right to photograph exhibited works for publicity, educational and publications purposes.

The Sponsors will endeavor to produce a catalog of the exhibit. Booth space for display and sale of non-entered works may be available at the Dog Shows for the 4-day period. For information on booth price, contact:
